- ii. deny, withhold, or withdraw from the clients the Promotion and any profits generated from abusive trading behaviour or otherwise

Abusive behaviour is considered (list not exhaustive):

- i. multiple registrations from the same IP address, multiple profiles, participation to the Promotion of third parties on behalf of the client without proper authorisation;
 - ii. trading activities that can be counted as fraud, manipulation or attempts to garner risk free profits, trades entered or exited with latencies, opening and closing a trade under two (2) minutes.
- 2) If M4Markets suspects that a client has abused the rules of this Promotion and/or has been identified to have engaged in abusive trading behaviour in any way, M4Markets reserves the right at any time and at its sole discretion to immediately exclude the client from the Promotion and take additional actions depending on the abuse. This applies to cases where the client fails to meet certain requirements within the specified deadlines as requested by M4Markets related to the Promotion.
- 3) M4Markets shall not be liable for any consequences of the Promotion amendment, suspension or cancellation.

Miscellaneous

The clients who register to this Promotion, acknowledge and declare that they fully understand that trading in CFDs which are complex and leveraged financial products, carry a high level of risk of losing money rapidly due to leverage and that are not suitable for all investors. The clients should consider whether they understand how CFDs work and whether they can afford to take the risks of losing money.
